

What is the Junior Fair Board?

The Redwood acres Junior Fair Board is composed of high school aged youth members (youth finishing their 8th grade year are eligible to join) from the community, who act to represent, promote, and support the Redwood Acres Fair. The Junior Fair Board hosts the Welcome Back BBQ the first evening exhibitors are at the fair along with the Dessert Auction (our biggest fundraiser) that same evening. They also have events during the fair such as the BarnYard Olympics and work with the Livestock Auction Committee on the Sale of Excellence and Buyers BBQ at the conclusion of the fair. One of the Junior Fair Board fundraisers is creating and selling a basket of Humboldt Made items that is auctioned off at the start of the Sale of Excellence. Once selected to be on the Junior Fair Board, members serve a 2 year term, but will be required to submit a re-application in year two. Members are welcome to re-apply after serving a 2 year term.
